LOCAL.

Trains left Calgary on time.
Friday and Saturday were a promise of spring.

W. D. JARVIS of South Edmonton, has been gazetted a J. P.

W. T. Livock of the H. B. Co., returned on Friday from a trip to Lac la Biche.

NEIL J. GILMORE, of Moose Jaw, has been engaged as teacher for the Sturgeon river public school.

J. M. Closson of the H. B. store, Edmonton, left on Friday's train for Winnipeg, to purchase goods.

M. McCauley leaves for Calgary on tomorrow's train to bring up a car load of horses for sale.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday were very spring like, and the snow decreased greatly in depth. To-day is clear and breezy.

Fancy Dress carnival in the Edmonton skating rink on Friday, March 2nd, 1894. Masks from 8 to 9 p. m. $35 given in prizes.

FITZGERALD & LUCAS, real estate and insurance agents, Calgary, have dissolved partnership and will continue business separately.

At the meeting of ratepayers of Edmonton school district to elect a trustee in place of Thos. Bellamy resigned, Frank Oliver was elected without opposition.

The winter supplementary number of the Winnipeg Commercial is to hand. It is beautifully printed and illustrated. Its views of Winnipeg and Vancouver are superb.

The Canada Gazette of February 17th contains the appointment of "Sidney Stockton Taylor of Edmonton, in the Northwest Territories, barrister-at-law, to be one of Her Majesty's counsel learned in the law."

The Winnipeg Tribune of February 17th is a curling edition, beautifully illustrated. It also has a description of the location of Fort Prince of Wales, Churchill harbor, Hudson's Bay, by lieutenant governor Schultz.

A letter of enquiry from Crary, North Dakota, mentions that Thomas Ellsworth Sheppard, now awaiting trial on a charge of murder, owned land near that place some years ago and has a number of acquaintances there.

SATURDAY Night of February 17th is a curling number and has photos of J. A. McDougall, president and Jas. McDonald, secretary treasurer of the Edmonton curling club. The number also contains another installment of Charles Lewis Shaw's random reminiscences of a Nile Voyager.

The attention of the authorities in and out of town is respectfully called to the practice which prevails of boys and young men, on the main roads on both sides of the river as toboggan slides. This practice is certain to result in serious accident if it is not stopped. There are plenty of places in the immediate vicinity of town which would make excellent toboggan slides and where the slides would endanger no one but themselves.

The Nor'Wester comes to hand considerably enlarged and improved from its first issue. It is now fully the equal in size and appearance of the Free Press. Evidently the Nor'Wester is in the race for blood and will not be satisfied with anything short of first place. This means that there will not be so many papers in Winnipeg before long. If Mr. Luxton stays with it we can be satisfied that his paper will be a good one if it is the only one. The same might not be the case if one of the others was the sole survivor.

The Delinctor for April is to hand. Mothers of families will be glad of the aid of the very suggestive paper on fitting out the family for spring and summer, and both mothers and daughters will be interested in the opening chapter of a series treating of the relationship between the two. Some new dishes are given under the head of dainty cookery. The paper on how to live wisely opens a subject that should command respect to all housekeepers. The subscription price of The Delinctor is $1 a year. Single copies 15 cents. Address orders to The Delinctor publishing company, (ltd.), 33 Richmond street west, Toronto, Ontario.

D. HENRIKSSON, trader, arrived from Slave lake on Thursday with four dog trains and a valuable lot of fur. There has been considerable sickness at Slave lake, chiefly amongst children, and a number of deaths have resulted. Mr. Desjarlais lost his eldest son, Rev. Mr. Holmes, church of England missionary at Slave Lake, lost his child, and Rev. J. Gough Birck of Peace river was dangerously ill. The sickness is scarlet fever accompanied by sore throat. Owing to the sickness there has not been as much hunting as usual. Fish are scarce, but game is plentiful. Mr. Desjarlais sold his fur to Jas. Walsh for $773, and left for home on Saturday.

BEFORE Insp. Snyder this morning W. Carruthers, charged with lunacy was adjudged insane and sent to Fort Saskatchewan for safe keeping.

Rev. A. Stenden, rector of All Saints church, Edmonton, is giving a series of lectures on church history, during Lent. The lectures follow the regular Wednesday evening service.

THE Winnipeg Commercial quotes No. 1 hard wheat at 42c country points. The Edmonton Milling company offers 55c. This is a case in which a local manufacture is a very direct benefit to the district at large.

On Thursday night there was a very brilliant aurora which covered half the sky from zenith to horizon with beautiful changing colors, dark red predominating. Strange to say the lights appeared in the southern not the northern half of the sky.

J. WALSH purchased the following lot of furs on Friday last: 76 martens, 3 silver fox, 60 mink, 4 cross foxes, 7 fisher, 9 red foxes, 3 coyotes, 22 lynx, 17 black and cinnamon bears, 42 beaver skins, 58 skunk skins. Mr. Walsh also purchased 2 silver foxes and two cross foxes from E. Laboucan of Battle river.

J. R. BRENTON is busy cutting ice to be put up for summer delivery in town. Last summer Mr. Brenton delivered 250 tons of ice in town and this year will put up for delivery 325 tons. In cutting the ice he places as last year as the water is nearly three feet shallower.

A TAYLOR, meteorological observer, mentions that on Sunday morning the aurora was a brilliant as on Thursday night. These were the most brilliant appearances he has seen during fourteen years residence at Edmonton, except on one occasion in 1882 when he not only saw but distinctly heard the aurora. The sound resembled that of the rustling of tissue paper.

A FOOT ball match between Edmonton and South Edmonton teams was played on Thursday afternoon last in the vacant property west of John Cameron's store, Campbell Young referee. The following were the players: Edmonton—R. Ross, captain, W. Grierson, W. J. Kelly, M. McDermott, J. Baxter, J. Cameron, L. Chisholm, T. G. Lander, J. Lander, A. Rowland, L. Finch, South Edmonton—W. Sharples, captain, Geo. Mitchell, Wm. Wilkie, Burt Gainer, Wm. Clark, A. Traher, W. H. McMahon, Jas. Brinkman, Jas. Duffy, H. Lindman, W. Beamish. The game resulted in two goals for South Edmonton and one for Edmonton.

The calico ball given by South Edmonton lodge, Independent Order of Foresters in Parrish's hall on Friday evening last was a great success in every way. The attendance may be judged by the fact that 60 couples took the floor in the opening dance. The music was supplied by Prof. Andrews and F. Cory, piano, W. Clark, cornet and the Flynn Bros, 1st and 2nd violins. Supper was served in the rooms adjoining the hall and was provided by Mr. Sharples of the Hotel Edmonton. Jas. Porte of Beaver Hills was floor manager. A very enjoyable night was spent, dancing being kept up till 3 o'clock on Saturday morning. The South Edmonton Foresters have every reason to be proud of the success of their first entertainment.

C. W. MATHERS, photo artist, took two views of D. Desjarlais's four dog train on Saturday, in front of J. A. McDougall's store as they were ready to start for home. Not many years ago dog trains were the principal means of winter travel in the whole of what is now Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. In all the country south of the Saskatchewan they have been replaced by the horse and the locomotive, but in the greater part of the vast region between the Saskatchewan and the Arctic ocean they always will remain the chief motive power for winter travel. At Fort Edmonton in the old trading days the Hudson's Bay Company kept upwards of one hundred dogs for freighting purposes. Now a dog train is a rarity, only appearing when a trader from Lesser Slave lake or Peace river comes in. On the mail route to the Mackenzie river by way of Lac la Biche the dogs are only brought to that point and horses are used the rest of the way in.

IMMIGRATION.

The immigration movement for 1894 will soon begin, and the vigorous immigration policy of the federal government of which Hon. T. M. Daly minister of the interior is the avowed father, will have an opportunity of showing its effects, alongside the withdrawal from immigration effort of the government of the province of Manitoba. While Mr. Daly's alleged immigration policy has been the subject of much decision in many quarters, the BULLETIN would like to draw attention to several good features which have recently been introduced. In the first place, although it may seem strange, the first good point about the new policy is that the system of bounting immigrants has been discontinued. It is hard to imagine what was the cause of commencing this practice, but certainly as long as it lasted it worked evil rather than good to the country and only helped to swell the profits of the steamship companies. A settler to whom a paltry bonus of say $10 is an inducement to change his location from one continent to another, is not worth anything to either. The desirability of securing an increase in our population depends altogether upon the nature and qualifications of the immigrants. It were better that the population should not increase than that the increase should be a dead weight or a detriment to the material, the social or the political progress and prosperity of the country. An increase of population is only desirable if it helps, along those lines. In order to get the right kind of people we must direct our efforts towards attracting their favorable attention. A $10 bonus would have no effect, and the only thing to be done is to bring the advantages of the country properly before their notice. The efforts that have been made during the past year in this behalf in England, Ireland and Scotland are most praiseworthy, as far as they have gone, and will no doubt have a good effect. The bringing of English, Scotch and Irish delegates of the tenant farming class out and showing them all over the country was an excellent move; and not less excellent has been the effect of the sending of delegates from Canada to the old country; men who came originally from the part of the Old Country to which they were sent and who were well acquainted with the conditions in this country and able to give expression to their views. One of these appointments, that of Geo. Leary of Southern Manitoba, now working in the South of Ireland, may be especially mentioned. Of the work of the agents in the States nothing need be said. Their work has produced much greater and more immediate results than that done in the Old Country, as yet, and no doubt will continue to produce good results.

In sharp contrast is the action of the government of Manitoba, which after keeping up an active and efficient immigration service in the Eastern provinces for some years has lately decided to abandon the field, for reasons which at this distance at least do not appear to be good. There is no doubt that there is a large movement of population every year from the Eastern provinces. There is no doubt that the people who move out of these provinces are the people most in sympathy, in matters both material and sentimental, with the majority of the people now in the Northwest. They are the people who are in every way best fitted to make a success of life in the Northwest. Therefore it is altogether desirable that when any of those people move they should move to the Northwest. And as in the case of European and United States immigrants, in order that they may come to the Canadian west its advantages must be placed before them. It was by the efficient work of agents of United States railway companies that so many have been induced to go to the States in preference to coming to the Northwest within the last twenty-two years, and while that movement has slackened for a time it has not by any means ceased, and with the revival of business in the States may increase to like proportions as before. The business of placing the attractions of Manitoba before the people of the Eastern provinces rests on the government of the Dominion. It is naturally the duty of the latter to draw immigration from foreign fields, and it is as naturally the duty of the former to draw from the home fields. The resolution of the Manitoba government to pay more attention to improving the condition of the people already in the country and less to the work of bringing more people into it is very good as far as it goes. Too much attention cannot be given to the improvement of the condition of settlers; but in many cases that which would improve their condition to the greatest degree would be an increase in the number of desirable neighbors. In order that this improvement may be secured means must be taken to advertise the country and its advantages amongst the people who are wanted and who are likely to want to come.

What applies to the case of Manitoba applies equally, or in a greater degree, to the Northwest Territories. While it is the duty of the government of the Territories to pay every attention to the wishes and needs of the settlers in the country it is not less its duty to use all proper efforts to secure its occupation by as many as possible of the industrious, intelligent, enterprising, moral and thrifty people of the eastern provinces. In recognition of its obligations in this matter the government of the Territories has opened agencies in the Eastern provinces both last winter and this winter for the dissemination of information regarding the Northwest. An office is now open in Toronto, which will remain open until about the end of May, the object being to give information and assistance to people desiring to come west. In view of the fact that the Manitoba government has abandoned immigration work in the provinces, it might be well for the Northwest government to take it up more strongly than before, lest the impression be created that both the Northwest and Manitoba have ceased to be desirable fields for immigration. At the present time there seems to be an excellent opening for successful work in the Parry Sound district of Ontario. The people there are stirring in the matter themselves, acting on information supplied by settlers from that region who are located here already, and the C. P. R. is giving active assistance. But unfortunately the C. P. R. is looked upon as an interested party, and capital is made against the movement on account of the connection of the C. P. R. with it. This would seem to be an opportune time for the Northwest government to step in and lend a helping hand by sending down from the Northwest some man of executive ability in whom, by reason of former acquaintance, the settlers would place confidence, who could set straight a great deal of the crooked work that is being done to prevent the proposed movement from taking place. This is a clear case in which much good can be done by prompt action.

FREIGHT RATES.

In the Manitoba legislature Mr. Davidson, conservative leader of the opposition, gave notice of the following motion.

"Whereas the freight rates charged by the lines of railway reaching into this province from the east and south, both for the transportation of our products to the seaboard and for the carriage of the articles necessarily imported into the province for the use of its settlers are very high, and, in the opinion of this house, excessive, and the efforts of our farming population in the development of the agricultural resources of the province are thereby seriously hampered and discouraged.

"And whereas the continuance of such rates, notwithstanding the great natural resources of the province, and the fertility of its soil, will not only make the pursuit of agriculture, upon which the province mainly relies, unprofitable for our present settlers, but will tend to prevent the success of our efforts to secure additional settlers.

"And whereas these railway systems, having been largely subsidized, not only by most liberal grants of public money, but by very extensive grants of the most valuable lands in the province, special grounds exist for expecting that freight rates in the province will be reduced to the very lowest possible rates; and it is the duty of this house, in seeking the welfare of the province, to urge in every way that is open to it the necessity of a reduction in such rates; and, therefore, this house does most earnestly declare that, in its opinion, the present rates are unreasonably high, and the circumstances stated justify the people of the province in calling for a material reduction of the same.

EXPERIMENT IN MUNICIPAL TAXATION.

Commercial.

Regina, the capital of the Territories, is about to make an experiment in municipal taxation of quite a radical nature. In a news item the Commercial of last week, referring to this, called it the single tax system, though it will be observed that it differs very materially from the Henry George idea of taxation. At the last session of the Territorial legislature an act was passed regarding municipal assessment, which the town of Regina has now decided to carry into effect. The Regina Leader gives the following synopsis of this act:

"The sources from which revenue may, under this law be derived are (1) real estate assessed at its full cash value, buildings and improvements being exempted—the maximum rate which may be imposed under this head is placed at three per cent; (2) a business tax, not to exceed one dollar and a half on every thousand dollars of the total turnover of the previous year, being 15 mills per hundred dollars and not 2½ per cent, as some suppose; (3) an income tax which averages $10 per thousand, but which may be reduced by the council; (4) a license tax, to be placed upon such concerns as railway, telegraph, telephone, insurance, electric light and loan companies, and also upon banks and societies, the cost of such license to be based upon the volume of business transacted."

The first source of revenue from taxation upon land is of course in agreement with the Henry George idea, or single tax theory. The second clause, however, which provides for a business tax, is quite opposed to the arguments of the single tax advocates. It is, besides, a plan of taxation which is objectionable, chiefly because it is not equitable. It is decidedly unsound and unfair in principle, to tax all business men to the same proportionate extent on the turn-over of their business, for the reason that profits are not the same in different lines of business. In some branches of trade, particularly in those where the annual turn-over is small, the profits are much larger than in others. One man, with a turn-over of $25,000, may have as large a net profit as another with a turn-over of $50,000 or more, yet the latter will pay double the amount of taxes. The maximum rate allowed for the business tax, under the act, is not very great, but this does not help the principle of the thing any. Another objectionable feature is the knowledge which may be obtained, under the system, of the amount of business done by different concerns. Many business men would not care to have the amount of their annual business made public. It seems to be an accepted idea that business should be taxed, but why this is the case is one of the things which is past understanding, in the logic of things.

As an experiment, this departure on the part of the Regina authorities will be interesting, though the system can hardly prove permanently satisfactory in its present form, if, indeed, any system of taxation can be made satisfactory.

GENERAL NEWS.

The farmers union of Manitoba want the farmers exemption placed at 4 cows, 5 sheep, 5 hogs and less for six months and food for the farmer's family for six months. They want all exemptions made absolute so that they cannot be chattered mortgaged.

The affairs of the defunct Commercial bank are approaching a satisfactory settlement. Since the liquidators have taken hold the liabilities have been reduced by $715,000, and they have besides $7,000 in cash on hand towards meeting other claims.

Archbishop Tache has told the Northwesters that having read the report of the privy council with regard to the school question of the Northwest, his impression is very painful, and he could hardly believe that such a document was possible. "I regret to have to state my impression, but the matter being before the public, and the comments of the eastern press being so injudicious, I cannot fail to say that the report contains many inaccuracies, and jumps at conclusions which seem to me groundless, and which surely are offensive."

Free Press: Chas. Weaver, a graduate of Wycliffe college, Toronto, was ordained at St. John's Cathedral Sunday. Mr. Weaver will go as a missionary to the Peace River district. He will be the third missionary for the extreme north land that has graduated from this well known college. The other two are Rev. Isaac Springer, whose field of labor is among the islands inside the arctic circle, and Rev. Mr. Marsh, who labors south on the Mackenzie, 1,000 miles from Mr. Springer's mission. Mr. Weaver will be located about half way between the two. He will start for the north on May 20th.

Free Press: Five hundred sober ably bodied unemployed men marching in procession to the Toronto City hall to ask for work, and declaring the while that their families were starving, is not what the country was led to expect when Toronto so warmly espoused a policy that was to give every working man a job, every artisan high wages, and every farmer at least a dollar a bushel for his wheat. Toronto is one of the great centres in which the halo of the N. P. was to be visible in its brightest radiance; five hundred men declaring the starvation of their families and marching to the city hall for relief is a black frame in which to see the highly colored picture of the National Policy.

News of Edmonton and surroundings up to hour of issue.

News of the world by telegraph up to day of issue and from two to five days ahead of any other paper reaching Edmonton.

Controlled only by the proprietor and therefore always ready and willing to speak out for the good of the town and district.

THE BULLETIN is read more generally throughout the Edmonton district than any other paper.

If you want to do business in the Edmonton district you can reach more of the people with a less expenditure of money through the advertising columns of the BULLETIN than by any other means.

Fair advertising rates charged, and like rates to all parties.

No advertising of a questionable nature admitted if its character is known.

THE BULLETIN Printing office is second to none in the Territories. Only first class type, machinery and paper employed. Printing of all kinds done promptly, neatly and cheaply. Call and see samples of work, and get prices before ordering your printing elsewhere.

A newspaper is not a producing industry, but if properly conducted it assists and stimulates production and progress more than any other single agency of like cost. Money spent towards the support of a newspaper is almost entirely spent within the town in which the paper is published and is therefore not lost to the business of the town.

The local newspaper represents the district in which it is published to the outside world.

Support your home paper liberally if it deserves support, so that it can give the best possible impression of your town and district as a field for immigration and investment.

There is big money for a new town in having a live and interesting paper.

REVISION OF ORDINANCES.

MR. EDITOR.

It is not time that his honor the lieutenant governor, should have the Northwest Territories ordinances revised, up to the last session. The last revision was in 1888, and there have been necessarily a great number of changes since, until now the whole thing is a nuisance to any one who has to do any magisterial work, or wants any information about any ordinance. He has to begin at 1888, and continue on to 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, before he obtains the knowledge sought for. This requires attention, with as little delay as possible.

Calgary Tribune: A large number of persons in Calgary and Edmonton will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Percy Morris which occurred at Riverside, Cal., on Friday last. The deceased came west about a year and a half ago and took a junior position in the Imperial bank making hosts of friends among the customers. He was later in the year removed to the Edmonton branch, but some time last year his health became enfeebled and he resigned his position and came to Calgary. Unfortunately his health did not improve, and in the fall his mother came from Toronto to nurse him but the most loving care could not restore him to health. About Christmas his mother took him to California in the hope that the milder climate might prove beneficial, but he sank gradually till death came to his relief last Friday.

On Sunday morning Lieut. Col. Jarvis arrived in the city from Australia on a visit to his nephew, H. W. Nanton of this city. This morning he went to Edmonton to visit his brother, Col. W. D. Jarvis. Col. Jarvis has been in New Zealand and Australia for the last ten years and has not seen snow during that period. He goes to Toronto, Montreal and Europe before returning home. The colonel is a retired English officer, having taken part in the Afghan war under General Roberts, besides seeing active service in some of the smaller Indian wars. He also served with the Red Cross during the Franco-Prussian war. He reports a continuation of hard times in Australia, but he says a better state of things prevails in New Zealand. Calgary Tribune.

Calgary Herald: Mr. Henry Wardell, of London Eng., an eminent authority on postal affairs, is on his way to Alberta to visit a son who is located at Edmonton. Mr. Wardell was for many years associated with the late Prof. Fawcett, at one time postmaster general of England, but has now retired from active work.

Five hundred and eighty three of the Lethbridge miners went out on strike on Feb. 29th. Their pay amounted to over $32,000 a month. The Calgary Herald reports that a riot has taken place and that police have been sent from Medicine Hat to assist in quelling it.
